

CEP Workshop on UK dynamism

On Thursday 4th June, the Centre for Economic Performance is hosting a workshop to discuss dynamism in the UK economy. The aim is to bring together practitioners across statistics, research, and policy to identify areas of collaboration, future paths of research, and implications for the policy agenda.

Schedule

09:30-10:00 Registration and coffee.

10:00-10:30 An overview of British dynamism. Will Shepherd, CEP

10:30-11:00 An international perspective from the OECD. Josh De Lyon, OECD

11:00-11:40 Developments in UK longitudinal business microdata. ONS firm-level data team

11:40-12:00 Productivity decompositions using administrative VAT data. Russell Black, DBT

12:00-12:30 Lunch

12:30-13:00 Tracking the economy through firm creation: Evidence from real-time administrative data. Anthony Savagar, Bank of England

13:00-13:30 Growing in place: The shift from span to scale in UK multi-establishment firms. Jakob Schneebacher, IFS

13:30-14:30 Policy reflections for a more dynamic economy.

Chair: Richard Davies (LSE)

Participants: Tera Allas (Honorary Professor, The Productivity Institute),

Dan Mawson (DBT), Richard Derry (HMT)

Getting to the Workshop

The workshop will be held on Thursday, 4th June, 10:00-14:30 at Old Building, LSE (Room 1.20, Houghton St, London WC2A 2AE).

The nearest Underground stations are Temple (Circle and District lines) and Holborn (Central and Piccadilly lines).

Light refreshments and lunch will be provided.

For more information, please contact:

Will Shepherd

CEP Research Assistant | w.shepherd@lse.ac.uk